

Figure 1 is a line graph showing the evolution of the average number of infected individuals over time for different values of the parameter α (0 to 9). The x-axis represents time, and the y-axis represents the number of infected individuals. All curves start at a high value and decrease over time, eventually converging to zero. The rate of decrease is faster for higher values of α .

